*It used to make me so fed up
People always asking me
What will you be when you grow

*Haven't we been here before?
Footsteps lead down to the note
On the door
That says I can't stay here anymore
And haven't we felt this way before?
Sure in our hearts, sure in our hearts,
But afraid just the same.
To say I can't stay one minute more
You might think that it's hopeless,
Beyond our control.
But that's not necessarily so,
Can't you see there's a chance
For the daring young soul
Who's finally learned to say no.
No, I won't be misused,
Ignored or refused,
And I won't give up and let go . . .
. . . The future is ours
And we'll be the ones who go on.

A black and white photograph of a group of eleven young people, likely a school group, posing in two rows. The back row consists of seven people standing, and the front row consists of four people sitting or kneeling. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The background shows a window with multiple panes. The group is diverse in appearance, with various hairstyles and clothing styles typical of the late 1970s or early 1980s. The overall mood is cheerful and formal.

Alpha Annex

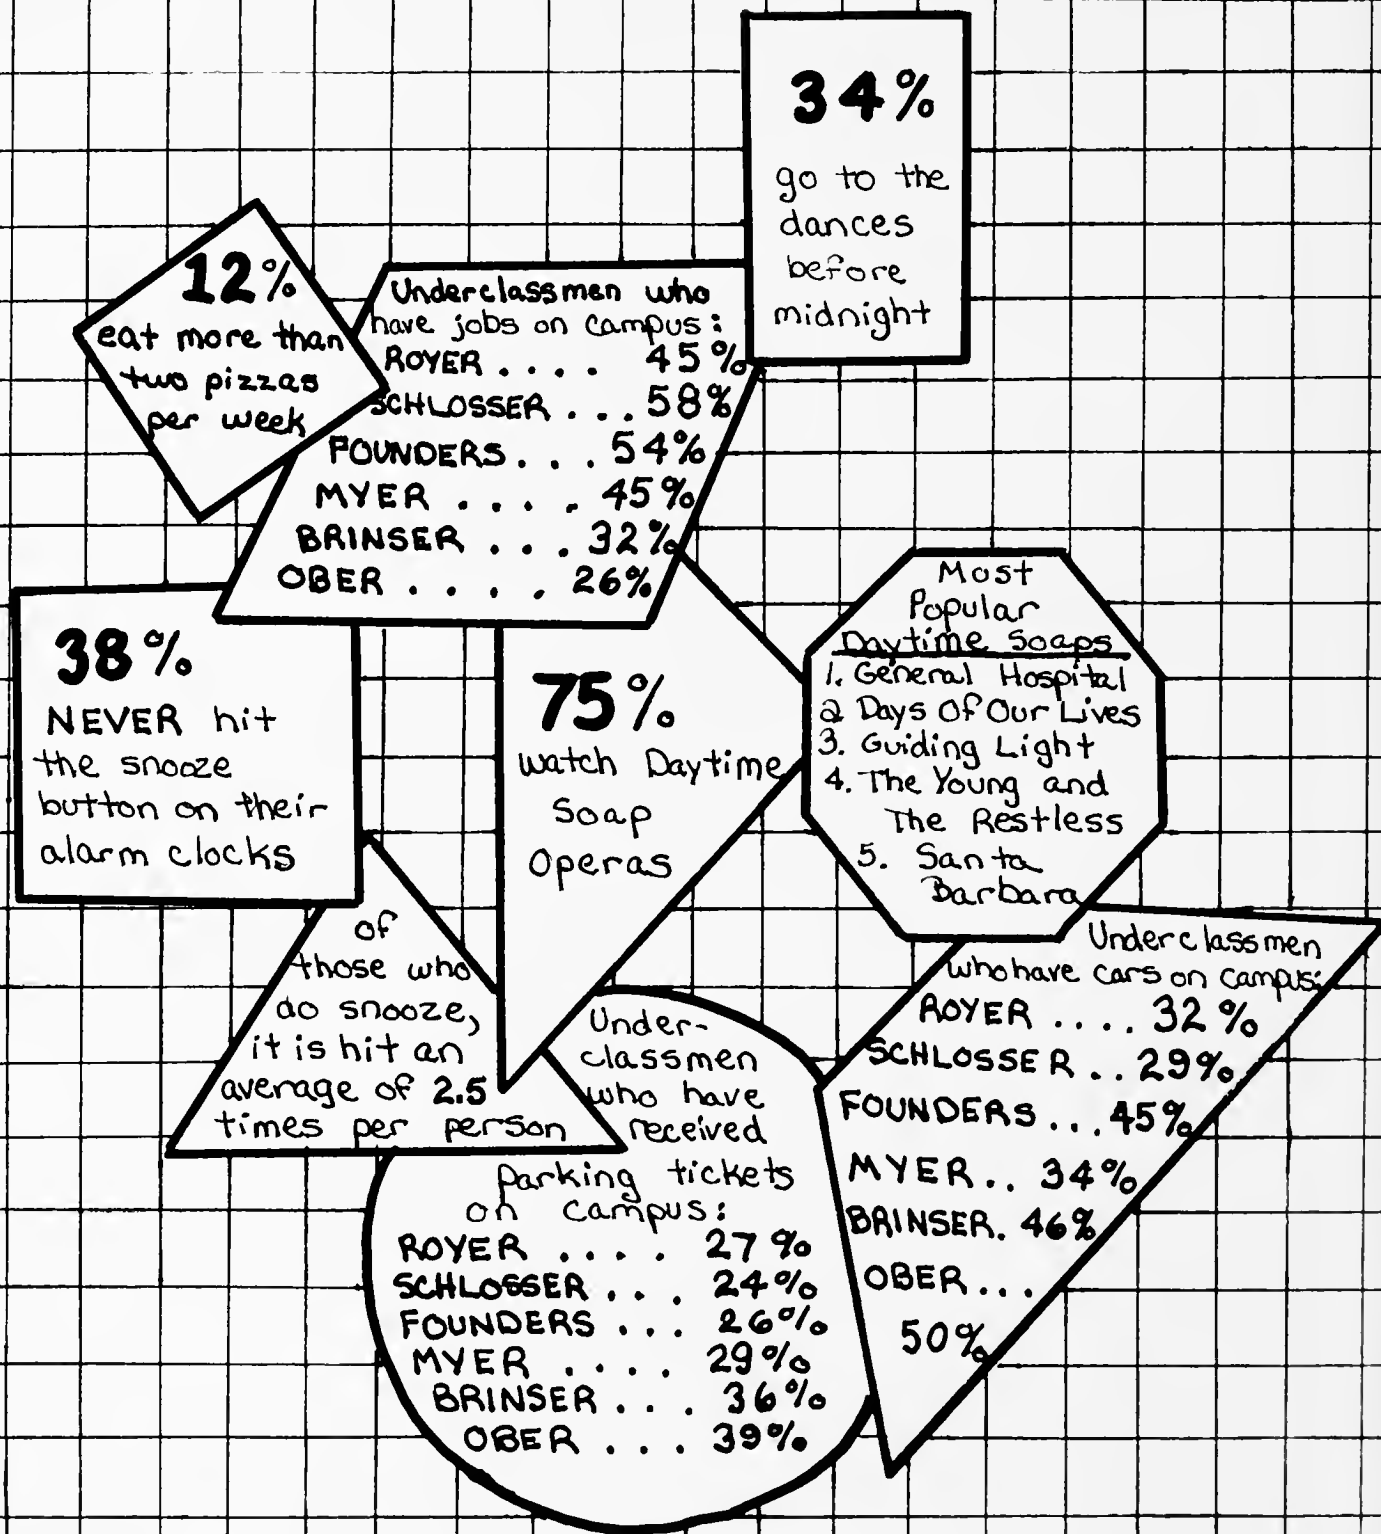

Kendal Hulihan, a senior communications major, and Janet Kresge, a junior math/secondary education major, are two very valuable assets to Elizabethtown College. Living in Alpha Annex they are responsible for the campus switchboard between the hours of 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm and 10:00 pm to 7:30 am. In this capacity, they are responsible for answering incoming calls, and handling the medical emergencies that occur during their working hours. From these responsibilities, Kendal and Janet have learned how to act in a number of emergency situations and have benefitted from their involvement in public relations. The dedication of these two students is part of the support system that holds Elizabethtown college together.

Senior Special

Now

GRADUATION 1987

On May 16, 1987 at 2:30, 281 students earned their degrees. John R. Coleman, spoke giving the graduates some words of wisdom while family and friends gathered around to witness this special event. It was a joyous event of accomplishment, yet sorrow lingered at the thought of leaving friends and memories behind. Yet it is now time to move into the ranks of the alumni and build new dreams and memories.

THEN

As you reach graduation you reflect on the past four years. Remember the Freshman walk — so many strange faces! How about the wild freshman orientations? Things have changed alot in those four years ... and so have you.

Swimming

The swim team had a fine year. Their spirit shown through as they represented Etown. Several of the team members made the trip to the MACs this year. Because the scores of the meets are unavailable we were not able to print them, but we would like to congratulate the team anyway. NOTE FROM THE CAPTAIN: "To all the people who helped and supported the swimming team, I thank you, and to all the members that stuck it out from September to March, I praise you. With Rusty Owens at the helm, we have made a dent. Let the future provide further development and winning seasons. I depart with the confidence that the Elizabethtown Swimming team will continue the spirit and adventure that carried us throughout the 1986-87 season.

Wrestling

The 1986-87 wrestling season was successful in numerous ways. The team posted its first winning season since 1981-82 with an impressive 12-8 record. Outstanding team efforts not only on the mats, but also in dedication and support for each other. The team was represented by seven members at the MAC's. Participants included Jeff Franquer (142), Dave McHoul (150), Dan Scaricacirotoli (167), Andrew "Bo" Bomentre (177), Jeff Forrer (118), Tim Gerber (126), and Dino Delviscio (134). Forrer, Gerber, and Delviscio all placed in their respective weight classes. Delviscio was unsuccessful in defending his title, but captured a respectable 5th, finishing his college career with a record of 78-14.

Freshman Orientation

On August 30, 1986, the class of 1990 arrived at Elizabethtown College to take part in Fresh Orientation. The freshman began with the fun-filled chore of moving in. This task was followed by group sessions, new games, and the traditional Progressive Hike. The highlight of the weekend arrived when the students participated in a Candlelight Induction Ceremony. This weekend helped to introduce and bring the Class of 1990 together, to make them aware of their fellow class members as individuals. It was a weekend of happiness, sadness, work, and fun that no one will soon forget.

Homecoming 1986

Homecoming, sponsored by the Student Senate, was held the weekend of October 16th to the 18th. Friday began Homecoming week with a huge bonfire and pep rally behind the soccer field. Saturday was a day of fun as the midway provided games, crafts and a variety of foods for students, family and friends to enjoy. Alumni could also be found wandering here and there enjoying the festivities. Jonathon Miller spoke about comedy after the Alumni Awards were presented. Heather Brubaker, was crowned queen during an exciting soccer game against Salisbury in which the Blue Jays won by a score of 5-0. The day was topped off with a special dinner in Thompson Gym.

Halloween Weekend

Halloween at Elizabethtown College showed true spirit. Students dressed up for the day and attended class in interesting and unusual costumes. The fun continued that night with the Haunted House and continued into the next day with a trip to Indian Echo Caverns. The following night students participated in a contest for the best costume. Tricks-on-treats abounded as everyone enjoyed a "gouling" weekend.

Berlin Fever Hits E-town!

On Saturday, November 22, 1986 at 8 p.m. the lights dimmed in Thompson Gym and the group the Rainmakers poured in followed by the much awaited arrival of Berlin. Berlin held the audience spellbound with their display of lights, sound, music, and the overall enthusiasm of the band. During the concert the audience was bewildered by the appearance of fog-like clouds of smoke illuminated by multi-colored lights coming from behind the stage. In the eyes of the student volunteers the members of Berlin were seen as real people. The crowd was enthusiastic during the whole concert, but was especially touched by Terri's dedication of a song to a friend who was a drug addict. During the hour and a half that Berlin played time seemed to stand still, when they were through they were asked to come back for three consecutive encores. The excitement still lingers due to the anticipation created on Saturday evening.

Holiday Dinners

The Holiday dinners this year gave everyone a chance to dress up and celebrate with their friends at those special times during the year. Thanksgiving dinner was a sit-down affair with the professors serving the students. Santa arrived early to attend the Christmas Dinner. A buffet dinner of seafood and roast beef were just two of the numerous apperizing dishes offered. The smiling faces and good times were enjoyed by one and all.

Night Watch

The fall theater presentation was "Night Watch." The audience was treated to a show of complex suspense. The players led those watching to a predictable end only to find that they had been fooled the entire time!

Junior/Senior Weekend

The Junior/Senior dinner dance was held at the Treadway in Lancaster. Those attending enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner served in the Treadway court yard. After dinner was finished everyone danced to the music of the "Flamin' Caucasians" and "New World." The evening was filled with fun for all. The parties, dancing, and good food provided all with a night that will not soon be forgotten.

Theme Weekends

Theme weekends are a big part of the social scene. This past year the dorms joined together to bring us even better activities. The dorms of Brinser and Rayer got together to sponsor the Valentines Sweetheart weekend. This weekend included the "Nearly Wed" game and a special dinner with lobster tails. Founders and Schlosser joined in presenting the "Anything Goes" weekend. This weekend we were greeted with mixed up meals and a lip sync contest. Ober glowed green as the emerald castle during their Wizard of Oz weekend and Myer again sponsored the "Snowball."

Your Special Events

Each semester holds many special events. Not only those organized by APB and other organizations, but also those special times that come just by being with close friends. The Conestogan has put together a section that will hold some of these events in the memories of all.

TGIS

TGIS weekend provided everyone with relief from the tropic. We had a beach party which was held in the AA! As well as other spring events such as the WET 'n WILD games. The dinner was held in the gym, where we were treated to dinner done Hawaiian style. As dusk fell, on Saturday, the crowds gathered for the fireworks display that delighted the entire community.

Spring Musical

I DO! I DO!

I DO! I DO! was a spring musical that will not soon be forgotten. Despite problems that arose with the director, the show went on. The cast was made up of only two players. Jodi Weigel played Agnes and Erik Enters portrayed Agnes' husband Michael.

Coffee Houses

Coffee houses are held several times a year. These "coffee houses" are held in the Joy's Nest and provide a relaxed evening watching performances by comedians, musicians, and other talents.

THE HONOR CODE By: Stephen Hunt

During the fall semester, Campus Forum sponsored a discussion on the Honor Code between faculty members and students. There had been a question raised by the administration concerning the implementation of an Honor Code at Elizabethtown College. The opinions were enlightening, dynamic, and sometimes emotional. The college community took it seriously.

The main criticism of the Honor Code was that it would be extremely difficult to enforce. Society, overall, is on the defensive. It assumes we will cheat and steal. Detection devices in banks and airports and even libraries will bear witness to this. They are, just as critics of the Honor Code would say about proctored exams, to protect the honest majority from the dishonest few.

But the college is a community, as well as a service organization. It exists to give to those who want to learn. Therefore it ought to be on the OFFENSIVE promoting truth, character development, and right behavior. The small college community does not need to be on the defensive. And if the strongest argument against the Honor Code is enforcement, it is actually an echo of the defensive attitude of the society at large.

Treat people with honor and the mature masses will act honorably. Others would indeed stop cheating with the removal of the "challenge" or "coolness" of cheating. The few cheaters who for their own reasons must cheat, would be few in this community and will be weeded out in due time by their own inconsistent achievement and peer pressure.

Both pro and con were heard at the Forum, and the wheels of Honor Code implementation have for the most part stopped. So, the outcome of the discussion was obviously a majority opposition to an Honor Code at Elizabethtown College. But what does that really say about the community here at Elizabethtown?

Honor Codes have been in effect for decades in some schools with much success and some schools, such as this one have done without for equally as long. Which system is right?
